1. Field of the Invention The present invention relates to a wireless communication system, and more particularly, to a method and an apparatus for selecting a wireless communication service in a wireless communication system.

2. Related Art With the development of wireless communication technology and the wide availability of mobile terminals, it has become possible to provide a variety of services through wireless communication networks. Particularly, various mobile terminals that can support the service of wireless communication are now available. Wireless communication networks have been developed to provide a variety of services, such as voice and data communication, to users. However, wireless communication networks may have poor performance when providing communication services to user equipments, due to congestion of network resources or due to unforeseen circumstances. Therefore, when a wireless communication service, such as video phone service, is provided, there is a need for a method for selecting a communication service in order to reduce a load of the network resources, or to increase the usage efficiency of the network resources, when a user equipment is unable to establish a connection with a network. The above information is presented as background information only to assist with an understanding of the present disclosure. No determination has been made, and no assertion is made, as to whether any of the above might be applicable as prior art with regard to the present invention.

Straightforward and easy-to-use layout TNT SoftWorks TabPad is a minimalistic yet modern application that comes bundled only with the essential components to offer a simple and quick way, to compose personal, school or work-related notes, and convert them to PDFs. The app comes wrapped in a stylish and self-explanatory interface, similar to the older versions of Windows Office, and with a ribbon menu that includes all elements in separate sections, for faster access. Choose the desired item type and alter it To start, you can either create a new record from scratch or open an existing one from the computer. The supported file formats are RTF, TXT, HTM, ODT, NFO, DAT and PLC. Regarding images, the types are BMP, JPG, GIF and ICO. Compared with other similar utilities, the tool doesn't provide too many options to choose from and doesn't really stand out from the crowd. You can write numerous documents at the same time, as it provides support to have multiple tabs open, making the writing process much faster. Apply customizations to make your records unique From the menu, you can set up the page properties, like size, orientation, and margins to fit the composition correctly into the sheet. If you have text copied to the clipboard, it can easily be pasted into the editor, and further edited. Plus, font type, style, size and color can be changed with one click, along with the indent and paragraph alignment. What's more, it's possible to add pictures to describe the content better and create shopping, to-do or personal task lists using the bullet function. Mistakes can be fixed with the aid of undo and redo. Another nice option is the ability to convert RTF files to PDF. The bottom line To sum it up, TNT SoftWorks TabPad is a useful and intuitive program that comes in handy for everyone who needs a small yet practical tool, to write and store essential documents, notes, do-to lists or school projects.
